

Queers ahead! Prepare the ground! (III)

European youth workers exchange

So, 28.02.2021 — Fr, 05.03.2021

"Queers ahead!" – transition between education and work – network, resources and looking at personal strengths is the focus of this Erasmus+ project.

Queers ahead! Prepare the ground – is the third exchange within this project. Twelve youth workers from Austria, Bulgaria, France, Germany, Poland, Slovakia and Slovenia will evaluate the findings and results of the two youth exchanges (Queers ahead! – your chance, your future I +II) with the aim to determine content and suggestions, which should find its way into day-to-day queer youth work. The exchange offers also the space for sharing the specific LGBTIQ* situation in the different countries, how this influences youth work and sensitize for self-care strategies.

The aim is to:

- identify common motivations to get involved in shaping the future of civil society
- general and specific learned transversal competences being involved in queer activism
- experience that different realities will lead to various strategies to solve problems
- realise the European dimension of respect for differences and safety of individuals

Total length 01.11. - 08.11.2020

This Erasmus+ project "Queers ahead!" is conducted by "Homosexuelle Initiative (HOSI)" (Austria), "Youth LGBT Organization Deystvie" (Bulgaria), "MAG Jeunes LGBT " (France) "Andersraum" (Germany), Stowarzyszenie Queerowy Maj" (Poland), "Sapliq" (Slovakia), "Drustvo Skuc" (Slovenia) and Akademie Waldschlösschen (Germany). It consists of two youth exchanges and one youth workers exchange. The findings and results of the two youth exchanges will be used for the professional exchange with the aim to determine content and suggestions, which should find its way into day-to-day queer youth work.
